THE DOG

He gathered them up that they should not be utterly lost?

I have heard that the Creator has many mysterious processes

In dealing with those who are said to be His children.

Is it quite impossible that this dog, my unjudging companion,

Has gathered together the things of which I was careless,

And that it is something of Me that lies on the stairs at night outside my chamber,

And that remains stanchly waiting for me when I turn the light low and fare forth at night?

—From The St. Louis Mirror.

Young Bagley married the charming Olive, and after the wedding breakfast he chanced to notice one of the guests, a young man, who appeared to be extremely gloomy and was evidently not having a good time. He stepped up to the young fellow with the idea of cheering him up. "Er—have you kissed the bride?" he asked. "Not lately," replied the gloomy one, with a far-away expression.
